

Faith
Will...

...leave a legacy.

Cath, from Lancashire, has supported Christian Aid for 60 years, from fundraising for Christian Aid Week to talking about our work in schools. It's an incredible legacy so far – but Cath has also pledged to leave a gift in her Will. She says:

'We need to have compassion and concern for people who are without food, water, medical care and education. So many people don't have the things which we take for granted, I think that is part of the motivation.'

Find out more about leaving a gift to Christian Aid and your church in your Will. Visit caid.org.uk/MyFaith, scan the QR code or search for 'Faith Will' online.

Your Faith is powerful. So is your Will.

'I see leaving a gift to Christian Aid in my Will as part of putting my faith into action.'

The Church of Scotland

